Any Old Business to Discuss?

- Marcus reminded the club of the changes to the fee structure in the bylaws.
- The bylaws were officially ratified, signed by Marcus, Mike H., and Dalton.
- Colen gave an update on the club station, stating that we received a rotor for the club 6m antenna, and that after some assembly, that portion should be optional.

Motions?Any New Business to Discuss?

•Scott Roberts, KK4ECR, the recently elected Section Manager for North Florida ARES, recognized Colen Boutwell, and Marcus Perry with appreciation, and the 2 first NFL Challenge Coins for their contributions to the local club, and advancement of interest in our area. He then gave an educational presentation on the ARRL Five Pillars, and how they affect the Amateur Radio community. He went on to discuss a new event called Volunteer On The Air (VOTA), an operating event to honor all ARRL volunteers. He ended his discussion by laying out the NFL Section's goals for the upcoming year (2023), including Building Better Relationships, increasing knowledge, interest, and memberships, and finally, placing more importance on local Amateur Radio Clubs.

"It takes all of us."
