

CISA Emergency Support Function (ESF) #2 Presents: The Shared Resources High Frequency (HF) Radio Program (SHARES)

CISA ESF #2 Workshop Seminar Series

Background

CISA's ESF #2 Training & Exercise Team will be hosting a seminar series leading up to the 2024 ESF #2 Spring Training Workshop.

The seminar series will focus on foundational information that will be used as the building blocks for the planned Table-Top Exercise (TTX) and case studies presented at the workshop.

The next seminar is planned for: September 21, 2023 @ 1400 Eastern Standard Time (EST).

Focus: SHARED RESOURCES (SHARES) High Frequency (HF) Radio Program

National security and emergency preparedness (NS/EP) personnel need to transmit critical messages to coordinate emergency operations even when traditional means of communicating via landlines and cellphones are damaged or destroyed. The SHARED RESOURCES (SHARES) High Frequency (HF) Radio Program, administered by the Department of Homeland Security's (DHS) National Coordinating Center for Communications (NCC), provides an additional means for users with a NS/EP mission to communicate when landline and cellular communications are unavailable. This program also provides the emergency response community with a single interagency emergency message handling and frequency sharing system. SHARES promotes interoperability between HF radio systems and promotes awareness of applicable regulatory, procedural, and technical issues.

Additional seminar topics could include:

- COMM-ISAC Industry
- The Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) Community Lifelines- Communications Focus
- ESF #2 Resource Request Form (RRF) Process
- ESF #2 Mission Assignment (MA) Process and Roles of Other Federal Agencies (OFAs)
