

Application for apparatus licence(s)

(In accordance with section 99 of the Radiocommunications Act 1992)

Australian
Communications Authority

Instructions for completion

- Print clearly – illegible, unclear or incomplete application forms may delay processing.
- A separate application form is required for each type of licence sought. However, more than one licence of the same type may be applied for on a single application form.
- If applying for a Maritime Ship, Amateur, Outpost or Scientific licence using standard frequencies, please complete this form and return it with the appropriate fee to any ACA office. If you are applying for any other type of licence, or frequency for your own use, you need to complete this form and an 'Additional Station Information' form RF 77.

- Some organisations providing safety of life service may qualify for a licence fee concession, exemption or discount. For further information contact any ACA office.

Disclosure of Personal Details

Information provided by the applicant in a field of this form that is marked with an asterisk (*) is required, by section 147 of the Radiocommunications Act 1992, to be disclosed to the public by the ACA in a Register of Radiocommunications Licences. The ACA will disclose the contents of the Register by making it available for inspection at any ACA office, over the Internet and through the sale of a CD-ROM.

Required Licence Period

Licences issued for periods up to and including one year must be paid for in full at time of application. Licences issued for longer periods may be paid for in full at time of application, or by annual instalments.

Licences are usually issued for 1 year. If licences are required for periods other than 1 year, please specify the period: (UP TO 5 YEARS)

If you would like licence(s) to have a particular expiry date please specify here:
